THE C., H. & D. R. R. CAPTURE.

The Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis Come the Anaconda Business The C., H. & D. the Subject.

The rumors current of late that a railread anaconda was about to swallow up the C., H. & D. Road, or had swallowed it, er wanted to do so, appear to have come to a head at last. We learn this morning, from an authoritative source, that the thing had been accomplished by the purchase of some fourteen hundred shares of tock from Messrs. R. M. Shoemaker, J. N. Kinney and Henry Lewis, which enables the C., C., C. & I. party to elect their own efficers and control the road.

This means that six Cleveland Directors will be put into the Board, and three Cincinnati gentlement with Mr. Theodore Cook as President. All the new Directors are large owners of stock, and will be interested in the careful management of the read and in the interests of Cincinnati. The measure will, it is thought, secure favorable business arrangements for the future interests of the C., H. & D. Road, and woold such damaging conventition with the ayold such damaging competition with the C. C., C. & I. Road, as must otherwise almost inevitably occur to the injury of both

It is of course understood that the parties back of this combination are the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio and the New York and Erie interest, which appear to have a lively appreciation of the increased importance that the completion of the Southern Eailroad gives to Cincinnatias a railroad center. Of the effect that this consolidations is a supplementary of the effect that this consolidation. tion will have upon the Cincinnati South-ern it is as yet a little premature to speak, but that this great artery running into the heart of the South will be eagerly sought by Eastern lines is inevitable, and we shall be surprised if the enterprise that has gobbled the C., H. & D. does not put in its spoon as early as any of them, and with about as good a show of securing a favorable hearing.

THE COMING RYAN-GOSS FIGHT .- All the money for the match between Joseph Goss, of Brooklyn, and Patrick Ryan, of Troy, is now up, the final deposit of $250 from each having been staked last Monday night at William Tracey's, 33 Twenty-ninth street. Both principals were present with their trainers, Steve Taylor for Ryan, and Bar-ney Aaron and William Busby for Goss. On tossing for choice of the battleground and a permanent stakeholder Ryan won, and named Steve Taylor as his representative. Taylor, by the agreement, is empowered to select the place of fighting in Canada, Goss and his backers to receive notification of the spot agreed upon at least ten days before the fight. The referee is to be chosen on the ground. The fight will be for $2,000 and the heavy weight championship of America, and will be fought in Canada on the 18th of May. Both men appear to be in good condition, but they have a few pounds of flesh to take off yet. Goss will continue his training at Fort Hamilton, not to leave off until he starts for the battle ground. Ryan will also stay at his training quarters, Far Rock-away, until it is time for him to start for the place selected. The final stakeholder is Charles Johnson, and the rendezvous is expected to be at Erie .- [New York Sun.

$500, will receive immediate attention.

It is expected that Rowell, Brown and Hazael will accept the challenge. Thomas Davis, lately the backer of Peter J. Panchot, with two other men in the city, has decided to accept the challenge. They have communicated with Rowell and Brown, who have authorized them to arrange the match for $10,000 a side, Rowell to back himself for one-third the amount. Rowell and Brown are to draw up articles, which are to be forwarded to O'Leary for
